THE ACTION OF CONGRESS—WHAT THE RADICAL PRESS THINK OF IMPEACHMENT AND OTHER QUESTIONS.

Below we give a few expressions of opinion from the leading radical press of the country upon the legislation of congress, and especially upon the question of impeachment. We have, in a previous issue, given the opinions of the Cincinnati (Ohio) Commercial and Springfield (Mass.) Republican—two leading, influential journals in the republican party—against the impeachment of the president, as not only unwise but unwarranted.

The Albany Evening Journal, a strongly radical paper, observing the dangerous, headlong tendency of Mr. STEVENS in his leadership in the national legislature, says, with considerable force:

"But in recognizing the existing prerogative of congress, the people did not intend to confer power upon it to remodel the government, reconstruct all the states of the union, or revolutionize the system upon which it has thus far been maintained. If Thad. Stevens and his followers thus interpret the decision of the late elections, it will not take them long to discover that they have made a supreme mistake."

The Providence (R. I.) Journal, edited by a radical United States senator, Mr. ANTHONY, in an able editorial, says:

"Very few of our exchanges express anything but disapproval of the impeachment movement. Many pronounce it wholly uncalled for, and all, or nearly all, condemn it as inexpedient. It is worthy of notice, however, that the discussion of the subject by the press, as well as the initiatory proceedings in the house of representatives, appears to take for granted the idea that the great provisions of impeachment in our institutions is, after all, little else than a mere political instrument—a contrivance for getting rid of an officer, especially a president, with whom congress may have become dissatisfied. The house of representatives, according to this theory, if it chances not to like the occupant of the presidential chair, may at any time appoint a committee, and put it on the scent of the administration, or of the personal doings of the president, till it finds something that looks like malfeasance or misdemeanor, and then, if the senate is willing to co-operate, proceed to remove him from office and put another man in.

"How little is there in all this that corresponds to the solemnity which should invest the proceedings of the grand inquest of the nation, as the house of representatives becomes when it accuses a public officer of high crimes and misdemeanors. It seems to be a matter dependent on views of party expediency, to be urged forward by party leaders and to be determined in caucuses, like other matters of party tactics.

"Such a prerogative is most likely to be prostituted and perverted when employed by a triumpuant party in power, flushed with recent victory in a popular election, and bent on the overthrow of an opponent whom it despises and hates. Should another example of this sort be presented, or even approached in the proceeding which has been begun, it is not Mr. Johnson alone who will be disgraced, but the presidential office and the government of the United States and the whole American people."

The Chicago Post, (radical,) a bitter opponent of the president, says:

"We are not among the number who have deemed it the part of wisdom to undertake an impeachment of President Johnson at the present juncture.

"In fine, then, if Andrew Johnson is to be impeached in accordance with the forms of law in order to vindicate a great principle, and in order that the might and majesty of the popular will may be ever after respected by the servants of the people, the discipline cannot be administered too soon. But let the day be far removed when the republican party shall undertake so dirty a work as to depose a president who will not confer upon them his patronage, simply to put in his place another man who will. The recent elections have demonstrated that it is not offices the people are after, but principles."

The Troy (N. Y.) Times (radical) denounces impeachment in the following business-like way:

"Nearly every republican newspaper of prominence and influence—even including the radical Tribune—earnestly opposes the Ashley movement for the impeachment of the president. In the first place it is ill-timed. Sufficient evidence of criminality has not been developed to satisfy the public mind that the president should be impeached. In the second place, its agitation is damaging to the country. Business affairs are in an unsettled condition, and our finances are peculiarly sensitive to changes. In the third place, the extreme measure should not be entered upon in a spirit of partisanship. Intentional crime should be so apparent that honest citizens of all parties would approve the proceeding. In the fourth place, it should not be undertaken except under the pressure of extreme national danger from executive crimes and usurpations.

"The exigencies do not exist to warrant the impeachment measure. The people do not approve it. We trust there is the good republican judgment in congress to defeat this hot headed and illadvised attempt. There are other and important business demanding the prompt attention of our national legislature, and that should now occupy its time and best efforts."

The Newburgh (New York) Times, a fiendish radical paper, utters eight or nine infamous falsehoods upon which to base the following dissent to the action of congress:

"The dominant party in congress have undoubtedly the authority and power to hurl him from his position on any one or all of these charges. But the country is not in favor of an impeachment. The people do not believe that the game is worth the powder. They do not care to make a political martyr of Mr. Johnson. They are averse to further turmoil and excitement when they can accomplish their aims through peaceable delay. An impeachment trial would doubtless drag along for months, and keep the country in an unhealthy commotion. The impeachment of a president is a most grave matter, and should be resorted to only in the most extreme cases. No precedent of the kind should be established so long as there is any other way open. Such, undoubtedly, are the views of the great mass of the people."

The Tife Oswego (N. Y.) Advertiser and Times, after making an undignified and untruthful general charge upon the president about his public acts, concludes thus:

"Whatever way else this measure, if persisted in, would result, we think candidly it would make a sure and short path for the republican party to walk in, from a large and supporting majority, as they now have, to a weak and helpless minority. The reference Mr. Ashley's resolutions have had is right, and, indeed, the resolutions of inquiry into Mr. Johnson's public acts can do no harm, but having once examined into them, and if necessary exposed their baseness to the people, there let them rest."

The Jackson (Mich.) Citizen, a rabid republican paper, says on impeachment:

"We are not among those who would advise a resort to such a strong measure to right the evils under which the country now labors. * * * It would be a sad commentary on the country that the republic found it necessary to impeach its chief magistrate, and would give our government an unstable name. We trust congress will not resort to such a severe measure."

The New York Times, whose editor (a radical) will have a vote on the subject of impeachment in the house, but who is openly against the proposition, says on the subject of Mr. BINGHAM'S speech:

"We are glad that a member occupying the position of Mr. Bingham in the party has taken issue with the more disorganizing of the extremists upon this point. His reasoning will commend itself to the intelligent judgment of the people, and his attitude in the house will, we trust, lead to the organized action of those of the party who dissent from the violence of Mr. Paine, and are not prepared to sustain Mr. Stevens in his warfare upon the state governments of the south."

The Cincinnati Commercial on the 18th inst. says, editorially:

"It is for the present sufficient to say that the ablest men in the present congress doubt whether there are substantial grounds for the impeachment. There exists no partisan necessity for the removal of the president, were such a thing constitutionally possible, and as congress has the indorsement and backing of the people, it is not needed to give that body actual or moral power to act as it may see fit. Under these circumstances, it may now be considered whether it is wise to further complicate the political situation and stir up a fierce agitation for the sake of ousting from the executive chair a man who is impotent for evil if such be his disposition."

The Chicago Journal, a strong radical paper, says:

"Impeachment is a dernier resort, never to be adopted until every other measure has failed. Unless the investigation committee appointed by the lower house of congress shall make some new discoveries against the president, there would not seem to be sufficient reason for his impeachment, for he is tied hand and foot by a loyal two-thirds majority in congress."

NASHVILLE, January 24.—The house passed the militia bill, providing for a cavalry regiment, composed of whites and blacks, for each congressional district, subject to the call of the governor. Also, a bill erasing "white" from the suffrage laws.

BALTIMORE, January 23.—The legislature has repealed the laws selling negroes for crime.

A special says since November leading politicians, republicans, democrats and ex-confederates alike, have been working upon a plan for a reconciliation between the north and south and the executive and congress. Suffrage and amnesty form the basis of the proposition. For instance, South Carolina will adopt Massachusetts' suffrage laws; the president will issue amnesty to South Carolina under Massachusetts suffrage; elect loyal representatives to congress and determine their admission. The administration is seriously considering the proposition.

A Washington special says Ashley is busily engaged accumulating impeachment evidence.

The scheme for the Pacific railroad through Texas to Mexico, is assuming shape, involving immense grants of land.

The Spanish government, it is understood, has received very kindly overtures from the secretary of state for mediation in the South American war. That government, however, has no official information of the result of the previous tender of mediation made by Great Britain and France.

Steamer Eagle, from Havana 19th, brings late Mexican news, and states Maximilian on his way to the city.

No abatement of the small pox at Matanzas. There were seventy-three new cases on the 16th. The government is compelling vaccination.

NEW ORLEANS, January 23.—Steamship Victor arrived this morning from Vera Cruz 19th inst. She brought the remains of ex-Gov. Allen, of this state.

French transports had arrived, and expected to depart in a few days with the French troops. A regiment of Egyptians had left on a French mail steamer some days before.

Maximilian issued another proclamation condemning in the strongest terms the conduct of Gen. Sedgwick in taking possession of Matamoros.

Both the French and Mexican flags wave over the fort and customhouse at Vera Cruz. The liberals camped within twelve miles of Vera Cruz.

No hostilities had taken place up to the departure of the Victor. A train with three millions had arrived for either the French or Maximilian.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Financial Speech Expected—Impeachment—Tax Bill.

Special Dispatch to the St. Louis Republican.

WASHINGTON, January 22.—Mr. Morrill, chairman of the committee on ways and means, will to-morrow or next day addresse the house in an elaborate financial speech. He will state that in his opinion there will have to be a curtailment of at least two hundred millions of the currency before we can resume specie payments, coupled with a stiffening of the tariff. He is not in favor of sudden contraction, but of a gradual withdrawal of the amount of the currency. He shows that the veto of contraction of four millions per month during the past year has been virtually negatived by the corresponding issue of national bank notes, and that there is now quite as much currency afloat as when the contraction of the legal tenders commenced. He believes that it was never more important that the tax and revenue systems should be put upon a stable basis. He says he indorses Secretary McCulloch's financial course as sound and true, and he does not think it is wise for congress to go wrong because the secretary is right, though he distinctly disclaims indorsing the political views of the secretary.

France exported eleven thousand nine hundred and fifty-four "waterfalls" last year.

3. It sews with equal facility all fabrics, the most delicate and the heaviest, and with all kinds of thread, silk, cotton or linen.
4. Its seam is so elastic and elastic that it never breaks, even on the bias.
5. It fastens both ends of the seam by its own operation.
6. Its seam, though cut at every stitch, remains firm, and neither runs or ravels in its wear.
7. Its seam is more plump and beautiful, and retains its plumpness after washing better than any other.
8. Its seam can be removed in altering garment, after proper inspection without picking or cutting them.

The disastrous results of the late war having forced me to dispose of most of my property, I have confined to undertake this business, here in the midst of my old friends, for the purpose of making an honest living for myself and family by my own labor, and to retrieve, as far as it may be possible, the losses entailed by the late war. To my old friends, and to all who may feel disposed to give me their business, I pledge my personal attention to its efficient transaction. se22

BILL OF RIGHTS.

Is the Bill of Rights which, from the foundation of the Republic, has been looked on as the bulwark of our liberties, still in the existance? We think not, or if it is, the radicals have it exclusively for themselves, for all those who are opposed to them know it at present only in name.

The detention of ex-President DAVIS is in full violation of our Bill of Rights, for section 2, of article 4, declares that: "A person charged in any state with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice and be found in another state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime." If JEFFERSON DAVIS committed any crime it was against the state of Virginia, and he is amenable to her laws and should be given up to her authority for trial by his peers. His detention in a military prison in time of peace is an assumption of authority on the part of the government not warranted by the powers granted to it by the people. Why boast of a free government if the servants of the people rule with an autocratic authority? But this is "the best government on the face of the earth," and it can hang, kill or imprison at will, since the radical congress has the power, and BEN. WADE said "the people are the government and congress is the people." But the detention of JEFFERSON DAVIS is the most infamous usurpation of power, and without precedent in any government that boast of free institutions. It is not only infamous, but is degrading the nation in the eyes of the world. It is but a few years ago that KOSSUTH, who fled from Austria for just the same cause that JEFFERSON DAVIS is now held a prisoner, and arrived in America, where he was received with open arms, toasted, feted and offered an asylum. Nothing was too good for him, and the very men who now clamor for the life of Mr. DAVIS were the loudest in the praise of the "Hungarian patriot." That republics are ungrateful has become as true as Holy Writ. All that Mr. DAVIS ever did for America is forgotten, and the hate of the radicals know no bounds. If there ever was a martyr to a cause Mr. DAVIS is one. Every art of oppression has been studied and applied. We have heard much of what he had to submit to, but when the truth is known a history of horrors will meet our eyes, such as will appal the stoutest heart. Yet like a good and meek Caristian, he bears all their venom without a moan. The intention of the radicals is plain. They know that if Mr. DAVIS is ever brought before a tribunal his vindication will be so clear that the thousand lies they have hatched about him will be sure to "come home to roost," and they have determined to keep him in confinement until Death, more kind than they, will release him from his imprisonment. Oh! it is horrible to contemplate. A man of the lofty bearing and dauntless courage of ex-President DAVIS to pine away his eagle-soul in a dreary prison, and denied an opportunity of setting himself right before the world. We trust for the better, but if he dies in his prison house his name will be the rallying cry of a generation yet to come. "The blood of the martyr is the seed of the church," and his blood will cement the bond of love between the states who chose him to preside over their destiny forever. Let the radicals remember that

> "Freedom's battle once begun,
> Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son,
> Is battl-d oft but ever won."

SWISS MERCENARIES.

The Swiss government, it is said, has under consideration a question as to the propriety of preventing Swiss citizens from joining the army of the Pope. In this case the proposed action is no doubt political, caused by sympathy with the Italian people. It would be better, however, if Switzerland should resolve that in no case hereafter should there be, by her consent, reason for the continuance of the idea that the Swiss have no ambition beyond that of becoming mercenaries. The Swiss guards of the French monarchs were notorious among the paid troops of the old regime, and Point d'argent, Point d'Suisse. That the citizens of a free republic should be willing to take service under a monarch, has always been a reproach, and it will remain so as long as there is no change in Swiss ideas upon this subject.

THE ANSWER.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, after enumerating some curious "facts" about the taxes paid on gold watches in the various states, says:

After an exhaustive conflict, with destroyed crops, low finances, currency at a ruinously high discount, and a crushing debt upon her, Georgia buries the past, steps in nobly to aid the national government, and pays her $1. How it came to be paid is not reported, but the circumstance is worthy of investigation, for sometimes we instinctively feel that if the history attached to the payment of that lone dollar from the great state of Georgia was reached, it would disclose facts deserving record on the page of sad truths, which are sometimes much stranger than fiction. With us the record of that isolated dollar starts a train of thoughts that is associated with rude war and its attendant woes.

You are right in laying that "lone dollar" to rude war. SHERMAN and his bummers Shermanized Georgia, and they were not of the kind that left gold watches behind them. The only wonder to us is that Georgia paid any taxes on gold watches after such visitors.

THE SULTAN APOLOGISES.

The Sultan of Turkey seems to have, about this time, his hands full of troubles, and has wisely apologised to the United States and Italian governments, offering to make such indemnity as may be deemed equitable. In fact, the latest news by the cable states he has even offered to satisfy King George, of Greece. The Sultan must indeed be driven to the wall by dissensions at home to sue for peace from Greece. The sick man is getting worse, and in a short time he will breathe his last. This is a sad commentary on the daring ancestors of the Turks, who for centuries held Europe in awe. Nations, like men, are passing away. It is only a little more than four hundred years since the Turk captured Constantinople, and made it the capital of his vast dominions. Their power commenced waning a little over a hundred years ago, and to-day we find the late masters of the Greeks willing to treat with them in order to avert a war.

RADICAL OPINIONS ON THE IMPEACHMENT.

In another column of to-day's paper we publish various extracts from the different leading radical journals of the country. All the papers mentioned are utterly opposed to ANDREW JOHNSON, and it will be seen the impeachment question can be regarded as a party dodge, gotten up for the sole purpose of obtaining the spoils of office, and none better understand how to plunder the government than these same puritanical office mongers.

The Forty-two Mile Sleighing Race.

This event, which came off on Tuesday, was arranged the same day at Provence, between Charles Branch's black mare "Black Maria," and William Anne's sorrel horse "Canada Joe," to go between Providence and Charley Mayo's livery stable, Bowdoin square, Boston, sleighs, owners to drive, for a purse of $500. The start was made soon after 9, and Black Maria won in the remarkable time of three hours and twenty-five minutes. The accommodation trains on the railroad are about two hours in making the run between the cities.—Boston Journal, Jan. 17.

TENNESSEE NEWS.

The Chattanooga Union of the 23d says "the view from Lookout mountain at the present time is truly magnificent and well worth a ride through the cold to see. The air yesterday was extraordinarily clear, and the vision could penetrate, as it seemed, hundreds of miles in every direction. Far as the eye could reach the mountains and ridges were covered with snow, the peaks standing out against the blue of the sky, clear and distinct. A visit to Lookout mountain yesterday or to-day, if the weather is clear, will give one a better idea of the grand beauties of nature than all the discriptions an editor or poet could write in a year."

The Gazette, of Nashville, of the 23d, regrets that there is not a ray of hope that the great Ristori will visit Nashville. Mr. Joel Davis, manager of the theater of that city, has returned there without being able to secure the services of Ristori.

We are informed that the road now in course of construction from Bridgeport to Jasper will be completed by the 4th of July next.

The legislature convened pursuant to adjournment, at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 22d, a quorum in both houses being present. In the lower house there were sixty-one members and in the senate seventeen. Representative Mullins, of Bedford, presided as speaker pro tem. in the house, the illness of Speaker Heiskell preventing his attendance. The attention of the house was engaged in the contested election case of Messrs. Davidson and Graves, of Jackson county, pending which a message was received from the senate announcing that that body would, out of respect to the memory of Senator Case, deceased, adjourn until 10 o'clock next morning. Motion was made that the house do likewise, which motion being adopted, both houses stood adjourned until 10 o'clock the following day.

"THE NEW CONSPIRACY."

Under this head Forney discusses the proceedings of the recent New Orleans banquet, in which he reads the plans of President Johnson to overthrow the radical congress by a coup d'etat. Forney's object is obviously to stimulate the work of impeachment. He says:

The rebel banquet held in Washington on the 8th inst., ostensibly to celebrate the anniversary of New Orleans, was availed of to disclose the programme of the new conspiracy for the overthrow of the government down to the point of another civil war. That the war is determined upon by the president and his friends, that it is essential to accomplishment of his ulterior purpose of establishing a dictatorship, and is the most popular of all the methods suggested for the perpetuation of his power, and through him of southern domination, was made apparent by the vociferous applause which greeted Jack Rogers's declarations. He said "that if the electoral votes of the southern states and the conservatives of the north should constitute a majority at the next regular presidential election, and should the radicals dispute the right of their president to control the government, he, for one, was for calling on the army of the country. [Tremendous cheering.] The issue would come, and the brave would meet it. No one should close his eyes to the fact that this issue would have to be met."

It was at a banquet to celebrate Jefferson's birthday in 1830 that the programme of South Caroline nullification was disclosed, and the principles which terminated in rebellion were enunciated. Jackson, the then president, saw through the purposes of Calhoun and his conspirators, and met them upon the threshold with his famous opposition toast, "The Federal Union—it must be preserved." But, in the present instance, the president of the United States is the head of the conspiracy, and expects himself to be the chief beneficiary of the revolution now inaugurated. The Blairs, well known as unscrupulous schemers for power, figure as major-domos, while the president appears in the character of a guest; yet who can doubt that the whole array of toasts were duly known and considered before hand by the chief actors in this banquet? It is the launching of a new revolutionary programme, and, as Rogers truly says, "must be met." Sifted of all surplusage the toasts at this inaugural movement of a new revolution intended to make Johnson dictator means this: That Andrew Johnson is the defender of the union from the assaults of its enemies; that congress is opposed to the union; that the supreme court is a supporter of the president's views; that the laws passed by congress to reconstruct the union will not be executed by the president, and that his non-execution of them will be justified by the supreme court on the ground of their constitutionality; that the rights of the states are indestructible and the right of representation unquestionable.

What is perfectly plain is this: that the southern conspiracy is fully inaugurated, with the president at its head; that this declaration of principles is final, and as sure to guide his action as is an official proclamation, and that under cover of devotion to the federal union he means to organize war against the plan of reconstruction adopted by the representatives of the people. This it is not desirable should be precipated before the presidential election, but they feel secure, if, with Johnson in possession of the government, its vast patronage, its army, navy and treasury at his disposal, the southern electoral vote should not be counted. The only question for congress to consider is, whether they will precipitate this issue now with the people on their side, or complicate it with the burdens and issues of the next two years.

THE BUTLER-POMEROY LIBEL SUIT.

Correspondence Between Parties.

From the La Crosse Democrat, January 19:

BEAST BUTLER AND HIS LIBEL SUIT.

The following correspondence explains itself:

No. 71 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY, January 16, 1867.

M. M. POMEROY, Editor Democrat, La Crosse, Wisconsin:

Sir: When in Milwaukee last October I made all arrangements with parties there toward the prosecution of the suit I have brought against you for defamation of character, as per preliminary notification and summons. This was the principal object I had in visiting Wisconsin, and my work was done well. On consultation with a few friends I have decided to withdraw the suit if you will agree to stop your personal attacks on me as a man and officer, which have so often appeared in your paper, the La Crosse Democrat. I have no particular desire or need to collect of you the amount claimed ($100,000,) but do wish to have your annoying articles stopped, and if you do not accede to this proposition the law must take its course.

B. F. BUTLER.

REPLY.

SANCTUM OF THE DEMOCRAT, LA CROSSE, WIS., Jan. 18, 1867.

Maj.-Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, LL. D.:

Sir: Your note is before me by today's mail, and duly noted. As at present constituted, with a natural disgust for thieves, rebels, turncoats, military blunderers, bank robbers, woman insulters, and evil-hearted scoundrels generally, permit me in all kindness to say that I have no retraction to make to you, for I never published a word concerning you I did not believe true, and which you must know to be true as holy writ, if you are at all familiar with your own dishonorable history as a public being, dignified by accident of birth with the name of man. I would not willingly injure your feelings, or deprive you of your world-wide reputation, so well earned in the service of Butler vs. honesty, patriotism and virtue. Nor do I wish you to die yet awhile, for your name, history, blunders, robberies, insults to woman and treason to your country, are valuable as warnings to the rising generation.

Believing you to be all I have ever charged you with being, confident in my full ability to prove every charge, you are politely privileged to let the law take its course, when the world will know more of your robberies, history, ambitions, etc., etc., too numerous to mention.

The only favor I ask of you is this: if you conclude to go on with your suit for libel and damages to the amount of $100,000, permit me to plead my own case in court, and give me only time to put my spoons, silverware, watches, jewelry, etc., etc., in some place of safety, outside the court room, till the trial is over.

With best wishes for your success and warm reception in your future home, I am, sir,

M. M. POMEROY,
Editor Democrat, LaCrosse, Wis.

Not Quite Dead.

Those who are so fond of asserting that the democratic party is dead, will not find confirmation in these facts: At the elections last fall, the democratic party polled 1,800,000 votes out of 4,000,000. A change of fifty votes in a thousand—of fifty thousand in a million—less than six per cent.—would have given us a majority of the popular vote. In Pennsylvania, New York and Indiana, casting seventy-two votes in the electoral college and 1,600,000 votes by the people, we were defeated less than 44,000. A change of less than one and a half per cent.—of less than fifteen in a thousand—would have given us a majority. In eleven states of the union, excluding entirely the southern states, a change of 30,000 votes on the result of last fall will, in 1868, elect a president and a majority of congress.

[UNITED STATES AND EUROPEAN NEWS ASSOCIATION REPORTS.]

Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—Generals Thomas and Sickles visited the president to-day.

The galleries were densely packed to-day to hear Stevens speak on the enabling act. He gave way to Raymond, however, who wished to speak.

Gen. Lewis, heretofore chief bureau functionary of Tennessee, has been ordered to report to Gen. Sibley, chief functionary of Georgia, as assistant adjutant general.

Gen. Gillem has been appointed chief bureau functionary for Mississippi.

Internal revenue receipts to-day half a million dollars.

Thurlow Weed is in the city.

On official representation that the civil rights bill cannot be enforced in some parts of Arkansas, for want of adequate force and competent courts, Gen. Grant has ordered additional troops to Gen. Ord, commanding.

Senate.—A petition from Ohio wool growers for increased protection of the citizens of Indiana against the currency curtailment, was presented.

The finance committee reported the civil appropriation bill with amendments.

The commerce committee reported a bill to prevent smuggling. Passed.

A bill granting aid to the Central San Francisco railroad, was postponed to-morrow.

To the tariff bill a large number of amendments were offered, and only one accepted, adding to the free list, books, maps, publications, etc. Adjourned.

House.—After unimportant proceedings, the bill giving agricultural scrip to Tennessee, with an amendment to extend the appropriation bill to all states, provoked debate.

Maynard disliked having Tennessee yoked to the rebel states.

Stokes also spoke, and was taunted with his early secession letters. He said he had repented and entered the federal army. Stokes said he was ready to enter the saddle and stay there three years longer, when Mr. Randall of Pennsylvania, said, "Oh, bosh!" and the regular report says in parenthesis "laughter."

The bill was further discussed, Kelly, of Pennsylvania, maintaining that this was the only southern state with a republican government. South Carolina and Texas, he maintained were not states.

Cooper, of Tenn., was called to order for calling Kelly, of Penn., a liar. The bill was then passed.

The enabling act was then taken up.

The committee on ways and means were instructed to inquire into the expediency of repealing the cotton tax.

Mr. Stevens said he did not regret the length of time spent in the debate on the enabling bill, but he found much diversity of opinion on his side of the house upon any question of reconstruction, and that, if he did not change his mind, he should relieve the mind of the house on any question with regard to it, and would to-morrow call it up and move to lay it on the table.

Gen. Howard has issued the following circular: "Hereafter and until further orders no fees or charges will be exacted by officers of this bureau for services rendered in making contracts between freedmen and their employers either in examination, approving, witnessing or registering contracts or otherwise. He requests assistant commissioners to instruct their subordinates to follow this advice; he recommends written contracts in all cases for verbal ones occasion much confusion; bureau agents are urged to do all in their power to secure contracts for freedmen, and in tendering their services for this object they should let it be understood that they will be rendered without charge to the parties concerned."

NEW ORLEANS, January 24.—The Matamoros Ranchero of the 20th says: A new and great movement in reformation in the Roman church has been inaugurated throughout Mexico. Rev. Rafael Des Martinique has been elected bishop of this new Catholic and Apostolic church of Mexico. The object of this movement is to break off from the old Roman church for the reason, as charged, that through Romish influences came the French, who have invaded Mexico and deluged that land with republican blood. Rev. Father Hernandez was captured recently by the imperialists and shot by them, after suffering untold of atrocities. The charges against him were, being a liberal, and having a tendency to break off from the church of Rome.

Escobedo had arrived at San Luis and claimed the 2000 liberals captured there.

The whole of Sierra Gorda, including the old church party, had pronounced in favor of the republicans.

The liberals are fortifying Tampico.

Trevino is in San Luis recruiting.

Mejia had marched to the projection of the City of Mexico.

LOUISVILLE, January 24.—River falling slowly, 6 feet 3 inches in canal.

David White arrived from New Orleans, Nora from Memphis. Indiana departed to New Orleans; Wild Wagoner goes to-morrow; new steamer B. L. Hodge goes Saturday.

The Louisville and Nashville railroad is not receiving freight for Memphis to-day owing to scarcity of cars. Will receive on Saturday. Freights for Nashville and beyond are received and forwarded. The fault appears to be with the Memphis and Charleston road not returning the cars sent to Memphis.

A discredited rumor prevails that Gov. Bramlette has pardoned Thtweiler, who was convicted yesterday of manslaughter.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., January 24.—Chief Justice Walker delivered an opinion in the supreme court, reiterating that the state was a defacto government under the Confederate Guardians and administrators who invested in Confederate bonds or received money in good faith and all kindred executions were made valid by this decision.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., January 24.—Both houses of the legislature pray congress to repeal the acts paying for the services of enlisted slaves.

The Colorado legislature has passed an act prohibiting negroes and mulattoes from serving as jurors, over the governor's veto.

Gov. Cummins, of Colorado, is here, en route for Washington.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., January 24.—Gov. Hawley was renominated by the republicans to-day.

NEW ORLEANS, January 24.—Gov. Wells' message avers the adoption of the constitutional amendment, and expresses that congress will demand impartial suffrage. He denounces the police and anti conventionists for the late riots. Urges an increased tax for the maintainance of state credit, and favors the appropriation of a proper proportion of the school fund for negroes. He urges inducements for foreign immigration.

Mexican advices show the Liberals pressing forward as the French leave. There are many fugitives, and general confusion.

BROWNSVILLE, January 23.—Queretaro is where Mejia retreated from, and San Luis Potosi is to be evacuated by him as soon as the liberals advance upon that city.

Escobedo left Monterey for the interior on the 7th inst. He is at the head of the largest liberal army got together.

Berriazbal succeeded in raising several thousand dollars from the merchants of Matamoros, and sent money, etc., to Cortina on the 12th inst., with orders to proceed at once to Victoria.

Cortina, who is recruiting and arming all the rancheros, is still in the vicinity of Matamoros, and says he will be governor of Tamaulipas in all events. He will most likely pronounce for Ortega.

President Juarez arrived at Durango on the 20th ult. A fine of $240,000 was imposed on and between three citizens, and a monthly premium of $20,000 upon the city to replenish his treasury.

Preparations are making at San Luis Potosi for the reception of Juarez, who, it is said, will establish the seat of his government in that city.

The negro patrol guard at Brownsville shot and killed a citizen and a policeman on the evening of the 16th inst.

Continental Marriage Laws.

Among the antiquated laws and customs of some of the smaller German states, which will be abolished on their annexation to Prussia, not the least curiosities are those relating to marriage. In Electoral Hesse no man was allowed to marry if under twenty-one years of age, and no woman if under eighteen. The result of this somewhat severe law was that while in other countries girls try to make people believe they are "sweet seventeen" for many years after they have left school, the Hessian young ladies often declare themselves to be eighteen years old long before they have reached that age. The Prussian authorities, however, will change all that, the law of Prussia making the minimum marriageable age eighteen for a man and fourteen for a woman. In Wurtemburg men are not allowed to marry under twenty-five, except by special dispensation. A curious law, said to date from the time of the Visigoths, also exists in that country, forbidding any woman to marry a man twelve years younger than herself. In the other German states similar anomalies occur. Thus, in Saxony, the minimum marriageable age for a man is twenty-one; of a woman there is no restriction. In Austria, a boy of fourteen may marry a girl of twelve; while in Baden, a place where the bridegroom is under twenty-five or the bride under eighteen are not allowed unless sanctioned by the police authorities.

Ferocious and Fatal Fight With Axes.

We learn from the Burlington (Vt.) Times that two men named McDowell and Finnegan of Eden, in that state, having had trouble, accidentally met in the woods last Friday. Both had axes. Finnegan forbid McDowell passing a tree that he, Finnegan, had felled across the road. McDowell persisted and passed the tree. After some attempts at fighting they raised their axes, and Finnegan struck McDowell with his axe on the head or shoulder, knocking him down. Finnegan raised his axe again, when McDowell, partly recovered from the first blow, struck at Finnegan, the axe entering his body in the arm pit. Finnegan lived but a few minutes. McDowell has been held for his appearance before the county court.

Another cargo of goods for the Paris exposition is to sail from New York this week. Among the consignments is a richly finished street railroad car, got up in the latest style of the art. This car is intended for a Bombay (India) street railroad, and stops at the Paris exposition on its way thither. It is a curious fact that American builders have of late furnished cars for street railways in cities of England, South America and Canada, and in this branch of architecture leads the world.

The Tobacco Tax.

The Connecticut tobacco growers' association held their annual meeting at Hartford last week, and framed a petition to congress asking that the present tobacco tax be changed to a specific tax of not more than five dollars a thousand on all domestic cigars, and that the stamp be made a revenue stamp, and be sold to licensed manufacturers to be placed on the cigar boxes.

In Washington county, Tenn., twenty miles northeast of Jonesboro, is an ancient birch tree on the bark of which is still legible the following inscription: "1774—D Boon killed a bar."

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—The complimentary testimonial given by the Putzel dramatic corps to the Memphis club, came off last evening at the Greenlaw building, and proved a success. The favorite comedy, the Serious Family, was put on the stage with the following cast:

| | |
|---|---|
| Charles Torrens | Charles M. Straus. |
| Capt. Murphy Maguire | Eugene Putzel. |
| Aminadab Sleek | Lou. Leubrie. |
| Frank Vincent | Julius Elson. |
| Servant | M. H. Holland. |
| Lady Sowerly Creamly | Mrs. M. Putzel. |
| Mrs. Charles Torrens | Mrs. P. Pollock. |
| Emma Torrens | Miss Emma Wenfig. |
| Mrs. Ormsby Delmaine | Mrs B. Wangesheimer. |
| Grahams | Mrs. L. Steinlein. |

The play ran smoothly and the amateurs were encored frequently. After the performance, an elegant supper was disposed of, got up in Col. A. Prager's best style. Prof. Withers furnished the music, and kept up "till the wee sma' hours ayant the twail." It was really a pleasant time, and none present could possibly fail to enjoy themselves.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.—Mr. Justice Creighton disposed of three important state cases yesterday morning. The three negroes, Sam, Bradshaw, Geo. Sterling and Chas. Mason, the parties charged with stealing the yearling from Mr. J. H. House, on island No. 40, were committed to jail, in lieu of bonds for $2000 each, to await the sitting of the criminal court. Robert Davis, charged with stealing iron, the property of the Memphis and Charleston railroad, was bound over in the sum of $1000. James Thompson, one of the parties who threatened to burn the house of Mr. Riley, on Second street, not being able to give the necessary bonds, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the county jail.

PLAYING POLICE.—A man giving his name as John B. Johnson, went into a house on DeSoto street, some nights since, and attempted to terrify the inmates by threatening to arrest, etc., on some imaginary charge. They, in turn, call in an M. P., who arrested him. On being taken to the stationhouse, he demanded to be taken to headquarters, stating that he was employed on the force. His request was complied with. On being brought before the superintendent, that official said he knew nothing of him. For this piece of play he was fined $25, which he paid over with a good grace.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—There was another full house at the New Memphis last night to witness Vestvali as "Romeo." As on the preceding night the play was well put on the stage and well performed. To-night we have the Brigand and the Kiss in the Dark.

HEAVY ROBBERY—RECOVERY OF THE MONEY.—A white man, giving his name as Williams (?), called at police headquarters, says the Ledger, this morning and stated that he had been robbed of $1130 at a negro bagnio on Jefferson street last night. He did not know at what hour it was taken from him as he was too intoxicated at the time, or would never have been in such a house. Col. Beaumont went with him to the place where the colored ladies of easy virtue were found. One of them was pointed out as the thief. She denied it very emphatically, but her companion soon got scared, and handed over the money which had been given to her by her friend to take care of. On being told that they must go to the stationhouse, the one that stole the money said she would die first, and on Col. Beaumont taking hold of her, she struck and scratched him several times, tearing several handsfull of his beard out. After a hard tussel she was thrown down, tied, and taken to the stationhouse on a dray, where herself and companion are now awaiting trial. The white man was much pleased to get the money back, but said he would sooner lose the whole of it than have his name in the papers, as his lady friends would be certain to see it. His name is registered at police headquarters as Alanson Williams, of Issaquena county, Mississippi, and for the information of our readers we would state that it would be as near the truth if it was John Smith, of Kamschatka.

EMMONS & SON.—These gentlemen have just received at No. 10 Jefferson street, the New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Literary Album, as well as all New York dailies, and those of St Louis, Chicago, Louisville and Cincinnati. They are never behind time.

BOARD MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

Special Meeting Last Night.

The board of mayor and aldermen met last night at the call of the mayor, chairman Hulbert in the chair.

Present: Hon. Mayor Lolland, Aldermen Glancy, Johnson, Cochran, Wickersham, Amis, Lynn, Boling, Holst, O'Donnell, Townsend and Lemon. The following communication was received from the Mayor:

MEMPHIS, TENN., Jan. 24, 1867.

To the Board of Aldermen—Gentlemen:

Eugene Magevenyand Fletcher Lane, Esqrs., having declined to serve as hospital trustees, I have appointed in their place Martin Kelly, Esq., and Col. C. M. Carroll, and now ask the confirmation of the last named gentlemen. The board of hospital trustees have fixed the salary of their president at $2000, and ask that you approve the amount. The ordinance on street pavement, as amended, requires the mayor to advertise for proposals forty days; I suggest that the time be reduced to twenty days.

Respectfully, W. O. LOFLAND, Mayor.

The communication was received, and its requests complied with.

An ordinance repealing all laws in existence coming in conflict with the duties of the hospital trustees was offered and passed to a final reading.

The finance committee reported adversely to the comptroller receiving school scrip in payment for taxes; also, upon a resolution proposing to pay the city employees in currency.

The account of Inspector Ford received the same treatment.

The ordinance relative to the funding of the floating debt of the city passed a second and final reading.

The special committee to whom was referred the account of D. Larkin reported favorably thereon, and it was allowed.

Alderman Lynn presented the petition of Thos. F. Jennings and R. Workum, asking payment for certain lots of land. Referred to improvement committee and city attorney to report thereon.

The petition of Mr. McAvoy, indorsed by a number of citizens, praying that Mr. McAvoy be allowed to exhibit his Hibernicon of Ireland free of license. Granted—seven to five.

Alderman Amis submitted several accounts, which were ordered to be paid.

Aldermans Smith offered a resolution directing the city engineer to repair the abutments on DeSoto street bridge. Referred to the improvement committee.

Alderman Townsend moved that a lamp-post be erected on the corner of Tennessee and Trezevant streets.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the mayor to advertise for bids relative to letting out the management of the fire department.

Alderman Bolling offered a resolution rescinding the action of the board at a former meeting with reference to the sale of the engine house, on Poplar street and authorizing the mayor to sell the one on the corner of Adams and Second streets in ten days.

A motion to table the resolution was lost.

Alderman Smith was opposed to the resolution, and did not believe in this way of doing business.

Alderman O'Donnell also opposed the resolution, and did not want to sell the Adams street property, and thought that money could be raised on the city bonds instead of selling this valuable property.

The mayor stated that it was in contemplation of finance only, and was of opinion that the sale of the Poplar street house would not be of much assistance. In case the board ordered the sale of the Adams street property, he did not propose to sacrifice it, but would have it bring something near its proper value.

Alderman Townsend was in favor of the resolution, and desired to see the Adams street property sold, as the city needs the funds.

The resolution was amended to receive in payment of the Adams street property city scrip.

Alderman Lynn submitted an ordinance making the time twenty instead of forty days for receiving bids for pavements as asked for by the mayor; passed first and second reading. Adopted.

Alderman Wickersham offered that the mayor and comptroller be ordered to issue no more city scrip without authority from this board.

Alderman Johnson thought this looked like repudiation.

On motion of Alderman O'Donnell the resolution was laid on the table.

Alderman Bolling offered a resolution prohibiting smoking at the meetings of the board. Tabled on motion of Alderman Amis.

Adjourned.

ST. PATRICK'S FAIR.—The Stillman hall presented a fine appearance last night, the brilliant light of innumerable sparkling eyes contrasting admirably with the pale silver light furnished by the gas company. We remarked the utter insignificance into which any artificial light would sink when compared with that of the angelic eyes in the hall or of the heavenly luminaries, and allowing our pericranium to protrude through an aperture, which the carpenters had made when building the hall, and gazing into the cerulean heavens remarked a difference the light of stars celestial and stars terrestial, very much in favor of the latter. A gaping youth standing near us had the audacity to say that all this stuff about females' eyes lighting a room was a hoax, requesting us to follow suit the gas light and see if it wouldn't be dark. He was a greener, and we deplored his want of appreciation of the fair sex. We soon left the poor fellow and sought the disciples of Terpsichore, whom we found tripping the light fantastic toe to the most enlivening strains we have heard in many a day, and we could not forbear to join them, though we belonged to the meetin' house. It is a great place for enjoyment, but the most amusing thing we saw was an attempt on the part of one of the ladies to induce a local editor to invest fifty cents in a lottery. The bare idea of an editor having so much money caused us to smile. The voting on the suit of vestments is exciting a good deal of interest. Father Ryan, who will be remembered, is the author of the "Conquered Banner," is one of the leading candidates.

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.—We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting with Dr. J. J. Murphy, of Montreal, who displayed his dexterity in removing several corns from our feet, which he did with a skill that proved him at once a chiropodist of the first rank. We had been used to see so many humbugs who flood the country as "corn doctors," that we at first were inclined to be dubious. Having tried the doctor we can cheerfully recommend him to the public as a man who thoroughly understands his business. He operates on all kinds of ills that the feet are heir to and corns with out pain. The doctor can be found at the Overton hotel, and we consider we are doing the suffering public a benefit in properly bringing the matter before them.

FOND OF FOWLS.—Mat. Johnson, a young man who drives a wagon, was yesterday arrested by officer F. Wright, of the second district, having in his possession a lot of turkeys and various other edibles of the value of $30, stolen from the larder of the Gayoso house. The steward identified the property, but Johnson alleges that he saw some person hiding the articles in his wagon and thought it would be a good joke to make off with them. He either is not able or refuses to tell who the real thief is. In the meantime Johnson has been arrested on a state warrant and will be examined before Squire Moore this morning at 9 o'clock.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was, without doubt, the finest day we have had this season. The atmosphere was clear, the air balmy, the god of day ran his course unobstructed by a single cloud, thin clothing was in demand, and during the latter part of the day the principal streets were thronged with the fair and elite of the city, all bent on making the most of a fair day. Equippages which had been housed for some time were out in large numbers, bearing their occupants in holiday costume, and all was pleasant as a summer dream. Our river editor does not agree with us as to the day being so very mild and pleasant, but the difference of opinion can be easily accounted for, as his proximity to the Mississippi, in which there is a goodly quantity of floating ice, makes him feel rather cool.

CHANGED HANDS.—A couple of days since a lady on Washington street lost a quantity of clothing. A negro girl named Martha Keefe was suspected, and after a long and tiresome search a portion of the property was recovered. It appears that Martha stole the clothes, and sold them to Lucinda Lee, who in turn gave them to another girl named Jennie Keefe. These three females were locked up and will answer this morning to the police commissioners as to their guilt or innocence.

FEMALE PUGILISTS.—Mary Jane and Celia Walker, two mahogany-colored sisters, had a slight family quarrel yesterday up in Pinch, and decided to settle the difficulty by a game at fisticuffs, which was progressing very well when a gentleman with a blue coat interfered and took all parties to the lockup. It is more than likely that this species of amusement will have to be paid for.

SLOPED.—F. Engell (who was under bonds) charged with stealing brass from the Memphis and Charleston railroad company, was up for examination before Squire John C. Creighton yesterday. During the progress of the trial, finding that the evidence was against him, he sloped, and has not since been heard from.

ATTEMPT TO CUT.—An individual named Brocky Burns, who is a frequent visitor at Mr. Commissioner Richards' levees, got into a fight with a man named Hickey, on Wednesday night, during which he drew his favorite weapon, a razor, and attempted to cut Hickey, for which he was fined twenty-five dollars.

RIVER MATTERS.

Weather and Business.

Yesterday was one of the most delightful and beautiful days that we have had for some weeks. It seemed more like April weather than that of midwinter. Indications of rain still exist and we may look for a change before the close of the week.

Business upon the landing was only tolerable.

Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers are low, while the stage of those above will be seen by reference to our dispatches. At this point the river has commenced to rise rapidly.

Arrivals.

Steamer Natoma, St. Francis river.
" Dan Able, New Orleans.
" Jennie Lewis, New Orleans.
" Kate Kinney, Vicksburg.

Departures.

Steamer Jennie Lewis, St. Louis.
" Stonewall, Louisiana.
" Amazon, Cincinnati.
" Dora, Evansville.
" Victor, Hale's Point.

Boats in Port.

Belle Memphis, Celeste, Dan Able, Natoma, Ruth, Mary McDonald, Kate Kinney.

Miscellaneous.

The Guidon left for Arkansas river with a first rate trip of freight and people.

There are three boats now running between Columbus and Cairo. By a private dispatch, we learn that the Gen. Anderson is again making regular trips.

Capt. W. J. Johnson, of the Star whatboat, who has been rusticating in the Beargrass regions of Kentucky, is again at his post, having returned on Wednesday evening. He is looking in the best of health and reports old Bourbon all right.

Capt. Will have our weaknesses. Mat. Glass enjoys any subject on which he can take up the opposite side and spread himself in argument. Dick Johnson's weakness is Brazil. A certain brother reporter has a hankering after theatricals. Larry Hayward's failing is towards the "blue line." But there is one thing which we all have a weakness for—we mean, oysters! A very nice little party, we learn, met in the house of the Guidon, a few nights ago, and were it not that croton oil was used by mistake, in place of other condiments, there is no doubt that pleasant dreams would have resulted. As it was, more than one gay youth saw visions of cholera, and Capt. Wright's mixture was in much request. Tell us about it ye oyster lovers.

The Dora left for Evansville yesterday about daylight with 1200 bales of cotton. The Kate Kinney came in from Vicksburg light.

The Amazon departed with 600 bales of cotton for Cincinnati, and the Stonewall left for Louisville with a fair trip. Charley proclaims himself the fastest clerk and captain that ever landed at Memphis.

The ice in the river at this point is very soft and quite plentiful. The gorge at Columbus is now broken and no difficulty is apprehended to boats between here and Cairo.

The Louisville Democrat of yesterday says: Mr. John Caffrey, clerk of the Mary Swan, writes as follows:

ROCKPORT, IND., January 18, 1867.

The steamer Mary Swan is about "gone up." The prospects are bad for raising her, as the ice is cutting her up pretty fast.

Will be here until the underwriters come to take charge of the freight.

Mr. A. H. Lee, who, it is reported, drew the Crosby opera house, was first clerk of the Pocahontas, which plied from St. Louis up the Missouri river in 1856. He never lived in Illinois, and is said to be a very clever gentleman. His revenue tax will be heavy this year, poor fellow.

The Dan Able arrived from New Orleans about noon yesterday. She had 45 bales of cotton and was full of passengers. We are glad to announce that an entire new crew will be placed upon her. She will enter the Vicksburg trade as a Saturday packet. This gives us two Saturday packets for Vicksburg. We hope that it will pay both boats, but we fear that neither will make money; but opposition is the life, etc.

The Natoma came in from St. Francis river with 446 bales of cotton and her usual large passenger trip. She leaves on her return trip this evening at 5 p.m. Our friend Billy Clark, formerly of the Hambleton, has charge of her office. She is a true steamer, and passengers should not forget her.

Ryland, of the Democrat, says "that an old steamboatman assured him that boats had gone up the Missouri as early as the 10th of February and were not stopped." A young boatman assured us yesterday that boats within the past few years had left St. Louis for this and other southern ports in midsummer, and were stopped Queer, ain't it?

The steamer Mexico, which burned at the St. Louis wharf on Sunday night last was insured for $15,000.

The St. Louis Times of Wednesday says: The weather continues clear and cold, and navigation is entirely suspended. The river is falling slowly, with very little ice in it at this point. It was rumored yesterday that it had merged to some point below here, and the fact that it only fell about two inches caused many to believe that such was the case. It is possible but hardly probable. As we said yesterday, navigation will not be resumed between here and Cairo until the thaw takes place. Dispatches from Cairo stated that the lower Ohio was rising, and the blockade at Columbus will soon be removed. Capt. Ben. Johnson, one of the owners of the steamer Platte Valley, informs us that he intends to dispose of all his steamboat property and quit the business as soon as possible. Capt. Johnson has been one of our most enterprising and energetic steamboatmen, and we hope that he will change his determination to withdraw from the business.

The "colled passons" boat, Sharkey, and the Blackford are loading at St. Louis for Arkansas river.

We publish below a discussion which should be read by all our shippers. It will settle a question which has been agitated here for some days back in reference to the resh pump in the rivers above, it is conclusively and beyond cavil that a shipper has no control whatever over freight once it is on board a boat and bills of lading signed for it. No party but the consignee has any control over it, and he is the only party who can release a boat from her obligations.

The St. Louis Republican of Tuesday, says: The suit of Milton Tooth, of St. Joseph, Mo., against the steamer St. Cloud, for $1000 worth of furniture shipped on that boat but turned over by her to the steamer Nannie Byers and lost, was finally decided at Cincinnati, on Saturday, in the plaintiff's favor. The St. Cloud, after receiving the freight and stipulating to deliver it at this city, concluded to change her destination, and with the consent of the shippers transferred her cargo. The court in general term decided that a shipper who has received a bill of lading though named as consigner and has transmitted it to the consignee, it follows that his authority to reship or to permit a transhipment is at an end. Carriers must require all parts of the bills of lading to be given up before they deliver their freight, and if the owner obtains correlative right that before there can be a change in conveyance the real parties in interest must be consulted and their consent given. By maritime law a carrier is bound to transport goods to their destination on the same vessel, unless prevented from doing so by some event which he has not occasioned and over which he has no control. Only a stranding of the vessel would permit a reshipment that freight may be carried through. Strictly speaking the carrier is bound to provide another vehicle.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—This day at 5 p.m. the palatial steamer Mississippi, of the A. & M. S. S. line, will leave this port for Louisville. This boat is capacious, fitted up with oriental magnificence and splendor, is fast, reliable and commanded by that prince of good fellows, Capt. Hurd. Larry Harmstad & Co., agents.

FOR ST. LOUIS.—The elegant and commodious W. J. Lewis, in charge of able officers will back out for the above at 5 p.m. to-day, promptly. Larry Harmstad & Co., agents.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The splendidly furnished and altogether reliable passenger packet Commonwealth, in charge of the popular Capt. Lloyd, will go south to-day at 5 p.m. Her regularity of sailings, intermediate, and arrive at the Crescent City on good time. Larry Harmstad & Co., agents.

FOR VICKSBURG.—On to-morrow, as the sun dips beneath the western sky, the splendid packet Ruth, with all the pomp and stateliness of the Mississippi's proudest monarch, will turn her prow southward. Capt. Lee, as master, Clay Rice and Billy Fields as clerks, and last though not least, that best of caterers, Mr. Simpson, will lend new attractions to the Dan. W. J. Johnson is her agent.

FOR WHITE RIVER.—The Des Arc, for the above, will shove out to-morrow, in charge

From the Ladies' Home.]

MISERERE.

BY MISS J. M. PORTER.

Holy Mary!
Thou hast known the woe of life;
Thou art past the bitter strife:
Look upon us from thy rest;
Bear our sorrow on thy breast.
Holy Mary!
By thy gentle name I bear,
By this womanhood I wear,
Broken hearted, let me lean
On thy bosom, Heaven-Queen,
Miserere!

Holy Mary!
Does the blood heroic shed
Cry in vain? Ah, us, our dead!
May I see the patriot's name
High in heaven, through sword and flame!
Holy Mary!
May the purple path they trod
Lead my weary feet to God!
Slumbers on historic plain
Teach my hand to wear its chain!
Miserere!

Holy Mary!
Crown the victors; they have won
Freedom through thy martyred son.
Lo, the silvered cross is high
Borne aloft to Southern sky.
Holy Mary!
Gloria! for those who fell
On their spotless shields; 'tis well!
Sigh thou with us, stricken band!
Miserere motherland!
Miserere!

Holy Mary!
Giant sorrows drag their length,
Noiseless in their deadly strength;
I have wept—ah, let me weep!
Rock my fearless heart to sleep,
Holy Mary!
Guide me to thy sweet relief
By our sisterhood of grief,
Bear the Father every cry—
Woman—angel—high or nigh.
Miserere!

MEDICAL.

GALLIGHAN'S PILLS are composed simply of Vegetable Medicines. They are a Cathartic Pills, acting upon the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels; containing no Arsenic, Calomel, Blue Mass, or any other Mineral substance. The great advantage Dr. Proprietors claim for these Pills is that, without the aid of Calomel, Blue Mass, or any other Minerals, they will cure the most obstinate cases of CHILLS AND FEVER, DUMB AGUE, PERIODICAL HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, and affections of a like character. Follow the directions, and you will find they will do all that is claimed for them. Try one box, and their merits will recommend them over afterwards.
☞ We have used Gallighan's Pills, and have never known them to fail to cure when the directions were followed, and unhesitatingly recommend them to public favor.

NEW SOUTHERN MUSIC BOOK
Just Published:
TABOR;
OR, THE
Richmond Collection of Sacred Music,
BY R. M. McINTOSH,
Of Virginia.
Essentially Southern in its main features, TABOR nevertheless contains a choice selection of the good old Northern tunes. The author, for four years an officer of the Confederate army, composed many stirring pieces in moments snatched during the hurry-burry of camp-marchings in Virginia. The dirge used at the funeral of Gen. T. J. Jackson, (Stonewall,) May 17, 1863, was from his pen, and is included in this collection.
"Old Bloomfield," says the Richmond Whig, "is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of finished excellence, with a natural capacity for leading and directing a band of singers in this country. In the South he stands at the very head of church music, no one disputing the position with him."
TABOR is the first publication of the author, and the publishers feel confident that it will be received with favor.

NEW SOUTHERN MUSIC BOOK
Just Published:
TABOR;
OR, THE
Richmond Collection of Sacred Music,
BY R. M. McINTOSH,
Of Virginia.
Essentially Southern in its main features, TABOR nevertheless contains a choice selection of the good old Northern tunes. The author, for four years an officer of the Confederate army, composed many stirring pieces in moments snatched during the hurry-burry of camp-marchings in Virginia. The dirge used at the funeral of Gen. T. J. Jackson, (Stonewall,) May 17, 1863, was from his pen, and is included in this collection.
"Old Bloomfield," says the Richmond Whig, "is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of finished excellence, with a natural capacity for leading and directing a band of singers in this country. In the South he stands at the very head of church music, no one disputing the position with him."
TABOR is the first publication of the author, and the publishers feel confident that it will be received with favor.
